Goh Ballet's iconic The Nutcracker returns to the stage in downtown Vancouver for the 2016 Holiday Season

Vancouver, B.C. – One of British Columbia's most iconic traditions graces the stage once again this holiday season as Goh Ballet's The Nutcracker returns to The Centre in Vancouver for a limited run from December 15th to 20th, 2016. Tickets are currently available through Ticketmaster.

Under the leadership of Executive Producer Chan Hon Goh, former Prima Ballerina with the National Ballet of Canada and the artistic staging of Emmy-award winning choreographer Anna-Marie Holmes, The Nutcracker returns for its eighth year of spectacular magic and fun for the whole family.

"In eight short years, Goh Ballet's The Nutcracker has quickly become a not-to-be-missed holiday tradition for thousands of families from across the Lower Mainland," says Chan Hon Goh, Executive Producer of The Nutcracker. "Come join our cast of hundreds of local and 22 international performers as we take you away on a magical journey with Clara and her beloved Nutcracker."

Goh Ballet's The Nutcracker will feature performances by internationally renowned principal dancers from the prestigious National Ballet of Canada, Jurgita Dronina and Guillaume Côté, performing together as the Sugar Plum Fairy and the Cavalier Prince. Members of the Vancouver Opera Orchestra will provide live musical accompaniment of Tchaikovsky's world-renowned Nutcracker Suite.

Running nightly from December 15th to 20th, with matinee performances as well on weekends, The Nutcracker is sure to sell out so make sure to purchase your tickets before they're gone! You don't want to miss Goh Ballet's traditional rendition of this classical masterpiece.

Goh Ballet's The Nutcracker is also proud to announce the support of an all-new Production Title Sponsor, De Beers Diamond Jewellers.

"We would like to offer recognition and sincere thanks to De Beers Diamond Jewellers, for demonstrating corporate care and leadership in supporting the arts." adds Ms. Goh.
